

"Raising Competent Teenagers"

The six key elements of teenagers becoming confident and successful in School include

- * Developing self- discipline
- * Establishing good routines
- * Getting involved in school activities
- * Being a good problem solver
- * Following school rules and
- * Having supportive Friends.